INFORMATIONS, POINTWISE, ABOUT THE INSTITUTE OF RADIOLOGY AND MEDICAL IMAGING

1. A brief write-up about the Institute.

The Institute of Radiology & Medical Imaging (IRMI) was established in the year 1988. It is the oldest Institute to offer the Diploma in Diagnostic Radiography Course (DRD-Tech.). ~~Xk~~ Over the last 30 years of its existence IRMI had many batches of students who have graduated from the course. They have found successful careers in many premier Government and Private Hospitals.

IRMI was founded by eminent Radiologist Late Prof. (Dr.) Satyabrata Bose (EX-Principal, National Medical College, Kolkata and Head of the Department of Radiology, Calcutta Medical College) along with a dedicated team of doctors. It was established primarily with a welfare outlook, so as to enable students to pursue a career in radiography.

The entire training programme is conducted at the premises of the superspeciality hospital "Institute of Neurosciences Kolkata (IN-K)". Practical training is given in X-Ray, Ultrasound, CT Scan and MRI at the Imaging Department of the Institute of Neurosciences. Theoretical training classes are conducted through lectures by eminent Radiologists. Both practical and theoretical aspects of the programme are coordinated with great care and supervision.

Regular attendance is compulsory. The State Medical Faculty of West Bengal conducts the examinations (Both theory & Practical) and also awards the Diploma Certificate to the successful candidates.
